Says State's Tax System Is Detrimental To Growth.

A. Y. Ford, vice-president the Columbia Trust Company, an address yesterday before sportation Club of Louisvil clared that the tax system in vogue in Kentucky mental in that it dis capital and dwarf po Mr. Ford was the guest at an informal dinner gi the Transportation Club at at the Galt House, which attended by more than one hundred men representing rail-roads operating in and out of Louisville, His address intensely interesting

In the course of his remarks Mr. Ford declared that other States, with no greater natural resources than Kentucky, have forged ahead of this State in recent years by reason of the fact that their tax laws have been made more favorable to labor and capital. He submitted figures showing where other States enjoy a more rearonable tax rate than Kentucky. - Couier Journal of Friday, Nov; 4th.

SIMIAN HUGS GIRLS

The other day as twenty workgirls came out of a dressmaker's shop in the Rue Boileau in Paris, France at midday an arm encircled the waist of one of them-

The girls protested indignantly. The too gallant intruder was a hideous little person.

The girls began making fun of him, when suddenly he caught hold of one and put his face close against hers. She boxed his ears, and he dropped on all fours and bit her leg.

There was a panic. The girls rushed off shrieking, and two policeman arrested the aggressor. The creature was a chimpanzee, the pet of an explorer living near at hand. He was captured after a struggle and carried off by his master's cook, who went to fetch him at the police station, where he spent the night'

An amusing item of the is that the magistrate gd angry with the chim when he was first brought ill cause he refused to answeran question. He was highly idia nant when told that he wasalk ing to a chimpanzee. His hnort being near sighted, did notkno
